

THE TRINITY FORUM

CHRISTIAN

THINKING

FOR THE COMMON

GOOD

A YEAR IN REVIEW 2023

In 2023, we engaged the big questions of life in the context of a timeless faith—exploring issues like character and courage, hope amidst anxiety, human flourishing in the digital age, a better Christian politics, and many more.

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP

29

Senior Fellows—Christian thinkers in such fields as law, history, psychiatry, medical ethics, journalism, literature, and philosophy—collaborated across disciplines.

REACH

300,000

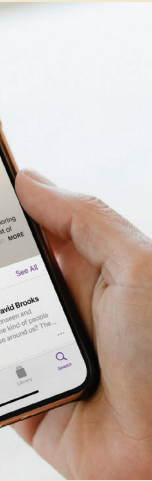

podcast episodes downloaded to date on themes such as redeeming power, cultivating a life of learning, and healing a divided culture.

20

new podcasts in 2023

634,000+

YouTube views to date

HOSPITALITY

BOOK RECEPTIONS, READING GROUPS, AND POST-EVENT DISCUSSION SESSIONS

hosted online and in-person around the country.

PROGRAMS

27,000

people from 99 countries participated in 18 Online and Evening Conversations, engaging in the best of Christian thought.

"This conversation made me want to understand more and to engage others with the same grace demonstrated in this session."

TRINITY FORUM EVENT PARTICIPANT

"This has absolutely changed my thinking. I have been suffering and was beginning to lose hope...this makes the journey more tolerable."

TRINITY FORUM EVENT PARTICIPANT

“Trinity Forum’s work in curating and disseminating the best in Christian thought inhabits the space between the university and the church and professionals engaged in a range of vocations.”

JAMES K.A. SMITH, PHILOSOPHER AND AUTHOR

TIMELESS WISDOM

100

Trinity Forum Readings published, including 4 this year, featuring Singrid Undset, William Wilberforce, Seneca, and Anselm of Caterbury.

EQUIPPING LEADERS

PASTORS
BREAKFASTS, YOUNG ADULT FORUMS & SECTOR
LEADER CONVENINGS

for leaders and scholars on topics such as character formation, healing division, and social regeneration.

WE’RE GRATEFUL FOR YOUR YEAR-END GIFTS THAT WILL EXPAND OUR REACH AND IMPACT IN 2024.

TTF.ORG

1015 18TH STREET NW, SUITE 201
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20036

202-944-9881 MAIL@TTF.ORG

Instagram Facebook X @TRINITYFORUM